Worthy Grand Knight,

RE: We Need drivers for dignitaries:

The Southwest Liturgical Conference (SWLC) will celebrate its 50th Anniversary of the Study Week, January 24-27, 2012, at the Sheraton Hotel in downtown Dallas, hosted by the Dallas Diocesan Liturgy Office.

Begun during the Second Vatican Council, the Southwest Liturgical Conference is the oldest continuous regional liturgical conference in the United States. The conference includes 27 dioceses from a seven state region. Each year, the SWLC Study Week is held at a different location in the region, highlighting the rich diversity of its people. Liturgists and those involved in ministry gather together to study and prayerfully celebrate the ritual nature of the tradition of our Catholic faith.

Dallas was the first diocese to host this event in 1963, Liturgy: History and Reform. In 1984, and again in 2005 we took the challenge. Now in 2012, we once again have the honor and pleasure of hosting this important historical event.

This particular study week opens in prayer on Tuesday evening, January 24th, and continues thru Friday, January 27th. The workshops will cover topics surrounding the different aspects of ministry with special interest issues for clergy, catechists and all who minister.

Drivers are needed to transport the Bishop, Archbishops, Cardinals and other dignitaries between the airport and the hotel. The majority of drivers are required on Monday and Tuesday, January 23rd and 24th. Drivers are encouraged to assist in return transportation on Friday and Saturday, January 27th and 28th. If drivers have a van, please indicate on the volunteer form included as well as the number of passengers each driver can accommodate.

Enclosed is a copy of the driver volunteer form to be completed and returned to me by no later than January 14, 2012. Driver assignments will be sent to you no later than January 19, 2012. You can also email me your name, address, email address, phone number and availability to mtebbe6020@att.net.

Your kind assistance is sincerely appreciated. If you have any questions please feel free to call me at 972-742-5886 (m) or 972-283-4198 (h).

Marce Tebbe
